DR. HOBENSACK'S

Worm Syrup and Liver Pills.

PROBABLY one reason why Worm Medicines so frequently fail of any good effect, is the fact that they contain no qualities except as Worm Killers. Consequently in many instances where we mistake the symptoms of disease and doctor for worms, when the cause of disease is not worms, but a derangement of the system and consequent debility and ill health, no good results follows, whereas in the use of Dr Hobensack's vermifuge, it being an active remedial agent, as well as worm killer, the patient immediately gets well, though no worms are brought away

Thus it will be readily seen that it possesses many advantages over other worm medicines, as it is not only sure to kill and bring away the worms, but builds up and restores the patient to general health, besides.

The Republican Party—Its Position and its Duties.

SPEECH OF HON ISRAEL WASHBURN, JR., OF MAINE,

Delivered in the House of Representatives, Monday, January 10, 1859.

The speech of Mr. Washburn is an able and a timely one—and it will be read with gratification by every friend of true Republican principles, and by all who desire a triumph of the cause. It is a speech which will do good at this time, while schemes are on foot to destroy the integrity, the strength and the usefulness of the Republican party by turning it aside from its one great end of its creation, viz. the advancement of the cause of human freedom and of free speech in the country and the restriction of slavery within constitutional limits.

Mr Washburn's ideas are intelligent and his words have the ring of the true metal. They stir the blood and relieve the reader with a more fixed determination to stand firmly by the banner of liberty—to take no step backwards in the great cause—and to suffer no diversion to snatch from us the victory.

He addressed the chair and the House as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, I have taken the floor at this time for the purpose of presenting some (though a concurring the Republican party its duties and dangers. And as I do so, allow me but myself in my present remarks I have no desire to do harm to that party or to the cause which it represents, and, perhaps, were I so inclined as to be accomplished by calling the attention of its members, in this way, to the subject to which they refer.

Two antagonistic elements in the political movements of the country, as well as those represented by its political organizations, and no party which is not founded upon, and is not true to, one or the other of these elements, can, in the present struggle which is raging, preserve a vitality more than a transient and unhealthy existence. Until the question on which of these elements shall prevail shall have been decided (until recently it did not seem to many will be no end to party issues and party schemes, and such there are many endeavors to obtain themselves upon the public, and to tease it with their impertinences, will be dismissed as worthy and with no arrest of ceremony, from the presence.

The idea to which I refer as I need not say, the democ

so long as the territorial condition shall remain. This is now a well-established position."

It requires the acceptance of this "position" by the Democratic party as one not to be denied, or even brought in question. If insists that the inhuman and impious declaration of the slaveholding judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, that those who bear "God's image cut in ebony" have "no rights which white men are bound to respect," and may be treated as outlaws and hunted as we res, shall be received as a sacred and indubitable verity.

It demands the admission of Oregon into the Union as a State, with a constitution which denies to colored persons, although they may be citizens of American States under the constitution thereof, the right to maintain suits at law for the vindication of any right, or the redress of any wrong.

It compels its allies of the Straight Whig school to renounce all the cherished ideas and oft repeated declaration of the Whig party, and, by unavoidable implication, to stamp as weak or hypocritical the great chieftains of that once powerful organization—Clay, Webster, and others, whose names will stand conspicuous and eternal in the firmament of their country's history—and, wallowing in the mire of an inconceivable degradation, to assert, as a northern Whig journal has recently asserted, that—

"The declaration that all men are endowed with an inalienable right to liberty, and that this right is self-evident, is contradicted by natural reason, by Natural religion, and by the sacred Scriptures, and leads not only to infidelity, but also to anarchy and atheism."

Sir, the purpose of the Democratic party in the inauguration of that carnival of crime in Kansas, of which the annals of that people will preserve the faithful record through everlasting generations, are placed beyond all doubt in its closing scenes.

Something more than a year ago the Democratic party caused a constitution, prepared by the Administration at Washington, to be sent to the Territory of Kansas, and thence returned to the President of the United States, with a certificate, held to be legal and sufficient, to the fact that it had been acted upon and adopted by the people of that Territory, as their organic law, when, in truth, the people never agreed to it, and had no opportunity of voting against it. Among its provisions was the extraordinary one I have already quoted, and which I will read again:

"The right of property is before and higher than any constitutional sanction, and the right of the owner of a slave to such slave and its increase, is the same, and as inviolable, as the right of the owner of any property whatever."

And this constitution the Democratic party insisted, by its Presidents, its members of the Senate and House of Representatives, (with a few exceptions,) its politicians, its State Legislatures, its newspaper press, ought to be acceptable to Congress, and re-organized by that body, as a proper and republican constitution, containing no provisions inconsistent with the theory of our Government and the principles upon which it was founded. The Democratic party, I repeat, perceived in the fact that this article was in the constitution, no objection to the admission of Kansas as a State; on the contrary, it insisted that notwithstanding it contained this article, and mainly, no doubt, because it did contain it, the State should be admitted at once into the Union.

The object of the Democratic party in urging with unexampled zeal and pertinacity the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution, was not merely to secure another slave State, but also, and more particularly, to obtain from Congress a recognition of the doctrines so clearly set forth in that instrument—doctrines wholly incompatible with the republican idea, and which, in practice, constitute an oligarchy. For it was perceived that if Congress could be induced to admit a State into the Union presenting itself with a constitution not republican within the meaning of that clause of the Federal constitution which declares that the United States shall guaranty to every State in this Union a republican form of government," but clearly founded upon oligarchal principles, the revolution in the Government, for which the slave power has been for years laboring, would be accomplished, and an oligarchy, a nation of classes, a Government founded on the theory that men are not equal, but always and necessarily belong to different classes in respect to political and civil rights and privileges, would be acknowledged to be the proper Government for a State of this Union.

Now, sir, it is be indeed true that the right of an owner of a slave is before and higher than any constitutional sanction," it follows that slaveholding is founded in natural law, it is a God given and indestructible right; it is above all merely human laws, it cannot be destroyed or impaired by any earthly power. Its dogma, if true at all, is all true; is good in and for Kansas it is equally good in and for Maine, and for every State in the Union. If it is a truth of universal application, and can be legitimately so stated anywhere. And pray, sir, what is an acknowledgment of it more? Why, undoubtedly this: that, as the right to hold slaves is from the Almighty, it is wrong and even impious, to deny it; that whatsoever relation God has established among his creatures is not only right, but one which human laws must assert in vain, and that governments and institutions based upon different relations are false and immoral; they are in opposition to the laws of God, in violation of His holy will; they mock His wisdom and power. Hence, you perceive, Mr Chairman, that every free State is established upon false and athesis principles; while those States which recognize the Divine right of men to hold property in men are in harmony with the highest laws, are true and religious States, and may well look for the favors and blessed claims of Heaven. Thus we arrive at the logical conclusion, that a government which does not rest upon the oligarchal theory of castes or classes is not right and legitimate government. Thus is the lesson of the Lecompton constitution, and to obtain a practical recognition of it by the Congress of the United States, is what the slaveholders device and to accomplish by the admission of Kansas under that constitution.

"Heretofore, in the admission of States into the Union with constitutions establishing or protecting slavery, there has been no such acceptance of the oligarchal idea as would have resulted from the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution, for in no previous instance has the constitution presented by a State applying for admission contained a provision like the one which I have read from the Lecompton constitution. These constitute it, so far as I am informed, have all been founded on the lofty, odious theory that slavery might be established or regulated by positive law, and not that it existed by natural and universal law. They have never assumed that slavery was of inherent right, and that laws inflicting it were violations of the higher law, and therefore void. From their provisions no inference could be drawn that freedom was not as good as slavery; and we know historically, that their framers, with few exceptions, regarded slavery as an evil; and that until within a few years the great majority of the citizens of the slave States have looked upon all legal and constitutional guarantees of the slave system within the S tates as the adjuncts of a state of society which would soon pass away. The constitutions to which I have referred contained provisions for the regulation of an existing evil; but the Lecompton constitution heralded that slavery was an evil, and affirmed in unitrue principles and its universal necessity. The former treated slavery as a thing to be endured for a time notwithstanding its oligarchal shadiness; the latter as of the Union.

an institution to be cherished and defended on account of its character. A State which tolerates a system, oligarchal in its nature, and which it knows not how to be well rid of, may, nevertheless, be a Republican State, within the meaning of the Federal Constitution; for its government and temper may, on the whole, be Republican; whereas, a State in which such a system should be in accordance with its central idea, the outgrowth of its cherished policy and the substratum of its society, would not, with any propriety, be called Republican.

This extraordinary article of the Lecompton Constitution was not necessary for the protection of slavery in Kansas; for this end might have been effected by such provisions as have been embodied in the constitutions of other States; but for the designs of the slaveholders it was of the first importance. If they could succeed in bringing Kansas into the Union with a constitution not merely protecting or re-establishing slavery, but also declaring it to be a just and indispensable relation in every well-ordered society, and in every true government, it was believed that all serious opposition to slavery and its extension in this country would cease, and that the transformation of the Government from a Union of free States to a consideration of oligarchies would be easy and certain. Failing to carry this point, the Democratic party next insisted, to the end that the oligarchical idea should in some way be declared preferable to the Republican, that a State with a slave constitution should come into the Union with forty-five thousand inhabitants, and protested that no free State should be admitted with less than ninety-three thousand.

Mr Chairman, I have dwelt longer, perhaps, than was necessary, upon these facts and references; but I desired to show, by the most incontestable proofs, what the ulterior designs of the slavery propagandists are, and that the Democratic party is their organ and representative, and fully committed to the work of executing their commands.

MAINE INSANE HOSPITAL.—From the Report of the Superintendent, Henry W Harlow, we learn that the year has been one of success in the administration of the affairs of the establishment. The Asylum has been entirely full. The year commenced with 208 patients—216 males and 93 females—and 126 have been received during the year. There have been discharged during the year the same number, in the following condition—59 recovered, 25 improved, 18 unimproved and 24 have died. In the case of deaths all but four were incurable cases of insanity.

The total condition of those received the last year was—35 males and 32 females married—34 males and 15 females unmarried—two widowers and seven widows. Of the ages at which the disease first appeared in the above, 25 were under twenty years, 40 between twenty and thirty, five between fifty and sixty, and six over sixty.

The assigned causes of insanity of those admitted during the year are, ill health, 28; religious excitement, 11; domestic affliction, 13; intemperance, 8; over exertion, 7; injury of head, 5; masturbation, 5; puerperal, 4; spiritualism, 3; disappointed affection, 3; fright, 2; disappointment in business, 2; defective education, 2; epilepsy 2; loss of friends, poisoning and paralysis, 1 each.

Since the hospital was opened, a period of about 18 years, 1976 patients have received treatment, of which 1770 have been discharged, 813 recovered, 347 improved, 360 unimproved and 250 have died.

THE FRENCH SPOLIATION BILL.—This bill which has just passed the Senate, is a measure to provide for ascertaining and satisfying the claims of American citizens for spoliations committed by the French prior to July, 1801. The bill provides for the appointment of three commissioners, to meet at Washington, and decide in two years the amount and validity of all the claims to be made under the act.—Five millions of dollars is the specified amount to which the commissioners are to be limited. If the aggregate of the awards exceed the sum, they are to be paid pro rata. A large number of the citizens of this city and State are interested in these claims.

The Boston Post says "the Republicans of Maine may properly congratulate themselves upon the re-election of Mr Fessenden to the U S Senate, for he is one of the most gentlemanly, able and sagacious politicians among them." Very good for a political opponent.

A COAL FORMATION.—A correspondent of the National Intelligencer attributes the unhealthiness of New Orleans to the character of the ground upon which it is built. Here is an extract which is interesting to geologists:

The situation of the place is so remarkable and peculiar, that it cannot escape one's attention. It is on an alluvial plain, of recent geological formation, and of an unknown age and depth. An attempt, made here some time ago, reveals the fact that, for six hundred feet, at least, the same formation was obtained. Rows upon rows of the stumps of the cypress, have been found growing over each other, exactly superimposed, each of which layers must have taken thousands of years to form. Dr Bennet Dowler, the able editor of the Medical Journal of New Orleans informed me that he himself had observed four layers of these cypress stumps within the limits of the city.

Seven States, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, poll 1,529,000 votes more than the fifteen Southern States; and nearly a third of the whole vote

MYSTERIOUS.—A BLACK REPUBLICAN FOR A RED REPUBLICAN. The Paris correspondent of the Boston Traveller gives an amusing account of the arrest of Mr. William Lee of Boston. He was walking in the garden of the Tuileries, when he was seized by two secret policemen and taken before the Commissary of Police.—The correspondent writes:

"Mr. Lee explained to the Commissary who he was, and showed him his passport (which he fortunately had in his pocket.) The scene changed mightily. The Commissary of Police asked him ten thousand pardons for the inconvenience to which he had been subjected, and hoped he would forgive the stupidity of his subalterns. The Commissary accordingly rated the officers. He told Mr. Lee they were obliged to arrest an Italian, a Red Republican, who was supposed to be lurking in Paris with intent to assassinate Louis Napoleon, and I am sure, added the Commissary with a smile, that you are no Red Republican."—No, said Mr. Lee, I am a Black Republican.—Voyez vous! exclaimed the Commissary, turning to the policemen, who looked as though they wished they could creep into some hole. C'est un negre a des Etats Unis!—He is a negro from the United States!"

CANDLE.—Their Strength.—We visited Pearson's wharf on Tuesday to witness a test of strength performed by one of Mrs Watson's candles, of which there were near a dozen on the wharf of all ages. The candle loaded was one of the largest. On the word of command being given, the camel lay down ready to receive his load, which consisted of five bales of hay, weighing in the aggregate over 1100 pounds, which was firmly bound to the pannier placed upon the animal's hump. Upon the utterance of command by the candle keeper, the huge animal arose without any apparent effort to his feet, and walked off in a stately manner along the wharf and through the city. We were informed that the same camel had had 1500 pounds placed upon him, with which enormous weight he arose. The animals are all exceedingly tractable, and seem to possess much affection for any one who treats them kindly, as an example of which Mrs Watson formed us that one of them, a pretty white one, which she had petted, would always kneel, when she was within hearing distance, which fact we really thought, certainly proved the animal to possess an excellent taste, as well as an affectionate disposition. In their native country the average load for a full grown camel is some 300 pounds, with which they perform their long journeys over deserts, with but little food or water.

We doubt not with the abundant forage found in all parts of Texas, and a full supply of water generally, the camel will improve in strength and general appearance, and be able to transport larger loads, at a more rapid pace, than in his native country.—Galveston News, 30th ult.

BUTTER WOODCOCK. I was recovering from sickness lately, and needed something to tempt my appetite. I thought woodcock, well cooked and served, would move my dormant palate. My Irish servant was told to go down and purchase a pair. Mrs B said to him:

"I suppose you know what they are—those birds with very long bills?"

"Yes, mem, I do."

Then, turning to the cook, she gave directions for their preparation for the table.

"Well, Jim, did you get the woodcocks?" inquired Mrs. B.

"I did, mem."

"But how much is this—how much change have you brought? What did they cost?"

"Sixteen cents, mem."

"What, sixteen cents for the pair?"

"Yes, mem."

"Why, that is extremely cheap!"

He stood in a hesitating way for a moment, and then asked Mrs. B. if she would not step down and see them. She walked down to the kitchen, and Jim stepped up to the table, took up a small package which he unfolded, and held out a couple of the longest kind of woodcock fishworts.

"Why, bless you, man, these are not woodcocks. Didn't you hear me give directions about cooking them?"

"I did, mem."

"But don't you see that I could not cook one of these? I might have them in the pot a whole hour, and they would not be cooked."

"I see, mem; I made a mistake. Shall I take 'em back, mem?—Correspondent of the Knickerbocker.

LYNCH LAW IN ENGLAND.—The London Times of Dec 23, contains the particulars of a lynch law" at Reading, England, on the previous day. It appears that a woman named Mary Newell was found guilty of the murder of her illegitimate child, and sentenced to death. William Francis, the accuser of the unfortunate girl, advised in his evidence that he had refused to give her shelter after she had walked with her child a distance of eight miles to see him.—At the conclusion of the trial he was attacked by a large crowd of the laboring classes, who ducked him, plunged him into a ditch, where they kept him for a quarter of an hour, tore off his clothing, and otherwise maltreated him. He at was saved by the police, with great difficulty.

JOHN A is the name of one of the "American citizens" in behalf of whose claims against Mexico we are urged to go to war with that power, or at least to insist upon a large territorial indemnity. We have no reason to doubt that his wrongs have been all that they are represented, but the name is a singular one for an American. As for foreigners who become citizens of our country without leaving their own, except long enough to get their naturalization papers through, and with the intention of returning, we do not think that the American Eagle can afford to spread his ips here over all the cases of this kind that may come up.—Free. Jour.

A railroad man got married at Belleville, the other day, and as he returned on the evening train to this city, his fellow-railroaders determined upon giving him and his fair bride a salute. Fifteen or twenty locomotives were up standing on a switch at the depot, and as the train bearing the happy pair passed by, the whistle on each locomotive was made to give a symultaneous blast, the like of which was never heard in this vicinity before. The hideous concert would have awakened the seven sleepers, as it did the echoes for miles around, scaring the urbane bridegroom out of his usual serenity.—Chicago States-man.

SILVERING AND ORNAMENTING GLASS.—A new mode of silvering and ornamenting glass, which produces a fine effect, has come into use. It is a novel plan of engraving the under surface of mirrors and other articles, with borders of flowers and various devices, prior to silvering. The whole is then silvered, and the pattern appears as if in relief on the surface of the glass, and executed in the most delicate silver. This invention may be employed in various ways, for decorating interior fittings, furniture, and articles of glass designed for the table.—Free. Jour.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Lawrence Labree died at Brooklyn last week, aged 45. He was once connected with the Tribune, and at the time of his death was an editor of one of the Sunday papers. Mr Labree was a native of Piscataquis County in this State, we believe, but has been absent some time.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS.—The Calais Advertiser says: We understand there is a good prospect of some three or four vessels being built in this city next summer.

DISASTERS.—A despatch from New York states that the ship ashore at Squan is the Wm Patten, of Richmond, Me, from Penang. She will probably be got off.

Advices from Key West to 10th inst received by telegraph, state that ship Edward D Peters, 98 and, from Bucksport for New Orleans, went ashore 6th inst on the Tortugas, but subsequently got off and proceeded.—Amount of damage, if any, not stated. Sch James Henry, Wood, from Rockland for Atakapas, also arrived in distress. Many other vessels, chiefly small tonnage, have also been obliged to put in by stress of weather.

Sch Wm Woodbury, Arey, from Boston for Rockland, is the unknown schooner before reported ashore on Odiorne's Point, Gos, N H No particulars. The W W is a good vessel, five years old, owned by Wm LeLoon, of Rockland, and is not insured.

LECTURE ON WEST INDIA EMANCIPATION.—Rev C W Denniston, recently U S Consul at Demarara, delivered an address upon the above named subject, in the Representatives Hall at Augusta, on Wednesday evening of last week, in which he gave a large amount of information gained by observation and from his public documents of the West Indies, showing that emancipation had worked well. At the close of the address, Hon Joseph M Livermore, of the Senate, offered the following resolution which was warmly endorsed by the assemblage:

Resolved, That we have listened with much pleasure to the address of the Rev C W Denniston upon the subject of West India Emancipation—that the facts and statistics he has so eloquently presented, throw new light upon this hitherto not well understood subject, and that we can commend his address to the public as one full of information and of great interest to all.

Brig Belle, (of Camden Me,) York, from Palermo for New York, before reported at Malaga in distress, and sprung head of foremast, lost both topmasts, topgallant and royal masts, yards and jibboom. Hull not damaged. Will be required to discharge only that part of cargo which may be necessary to shift the masts.

The Kennebec river is frozen over at Bath so that teams cross upon the ice. This is an occurrence that does not very often happen.

OUR HARBOR.—Notwithstanding the severity of the weather that we have experienced, our lower harbor has been throughout entirely open, affording safe anchorage, perfectly land locked, to the largest class of ships. On Saturday, the New York steamer arrived and went directly to her dock at Brown's wharf, the ice in the channel of the upper harbor offering no obstruction. The severe weather of Saturday took the starch out of the ice, and this morning unobstructed access may be had to all our wharves.—Portland Advertiser

POWDER MILL EXPLOSION—ONE MAN KILLED.—The kerseeling mill of the Gorham Powder Works, at Gambo, blew up about half past three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, killing Mr David R. Jones, who, at the time, was at work in the mill. There were about eighty kegs of powder in the mill at the time, and the report of the explosion was heard for some miles. It was not known how it was caused. Mr Robinson, a workman in an adjoining mill, was in the mill but a short time before the explosion took place, and then everything seemed correct and safe.

The body of Mr Jones was found on the ice in the cove, five or six rods distant from the mill. One leg was gone, and the other was broken. His face was badly burned. The left side of his whiskers was taken off clean, while the right side remained entire. Mr Jones leaves a wife and two children to mourn this sudden catastrophe.

No damage was done to the other mills by the explosion, except the breaking of the glass in the windows. The mills belong to Messrs G G Newhall & Co, of Salem, Mass.—Argus

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, 17th.

SENATE.—The Senate Chamber was crowded to excess to hear Mr Douglas pronounce an eulogy on Mr Herrin of Ill.

Mr Seward of N Y, presented the credentials of Mr. Wilson, re-elected from Massachusetts, and also the following resolution, which was adopted:

That the Secretary of Treasury communicate to the Senate as fully as it may be in his power to do, the number of American vessels which are engaged directly in the palm oil trade on the coast of Africa, the average number of their voyages annually, their tonnage, the nature and value of their exports and imports, and the amount of duties derived from them by the Treasury of the United States.

Mr Seward's resolution appointing Combstewart sergeant flag officer passed the Senate by a vote of 37 against 14.

Mr Shields of Min, offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Territories to enquire into the expediency of organizing that portion of the original territory lying west of the new State, which was adopted.

Mr Yulee of Fla, presented a petition from Kunhardt & Co. and other agents of steamship lines between New York and Europe, praying for a modification of the drawback. Referred to the Committee on Post Roads.

The subject was debated over one hour, the point of issue being whether to send it to the Committee of Finance or a special committee, but action was stopped by a message from the House announcing Mr Herrs' death.

Mr Douglas, to the evident disappointment of nearly two thousand spectators, who expected to hear an extempore oration, read in a low tone of voice a brief sketch of the life and public services of the deceased.

Messrs Shields and Davis followed in eulogy, after which the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr Phelps of Mo, it was resolved that during the ensuing two weeks from to day it shall be in order for the Committee of the Whole to take a recess till seven o'clock, for general debate only.

Mr Stephens of Ga, moved that Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week be set apart for the consideration of territorial business.

Mr Morgan of N Y, objected unless a proviso be attached that subjects in regard to the admission of new States be excluded.

Mr Stephens remarked that that would be for the majority of the House to determine.

Mr Morgan, "then I object to the introduction of the resolution."

Mr Morris of Ill, announced the death of Mr Harris of that State, pronouncing an eulogy on his private and public worth.

Messrs Clark of N Y, Lamar of Miss, Washburn of Ill, Adrian of N J, and Stewart of Maryland, added their mournful tribute

The usual resolutions of respect were passed, and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan 17.

The expenses of the U S Supreme Court for the last five years, exclusive of Judges' salaries, amount to $112,678, of which over $4000 has been paid to the clerk.

There were comparatively few members in the House to-day during the delivery of the funeral eulogies, which consumed about two hours.

It appears from a public document that the amounts paid and incurred by the execution of Kansas, on account of extraordinary expenditures, were, by Gov Geary $890, by Gov Walker $1405, and by Gov Denver $1,243 together with $687. The Sec'y of State recommends an appropriation to meet the indebtedness

The resolution of Mr Phelps of Mo, providing for night session merely for the delivery of buncombe speeches was passed by a large majority. This is intended to facilitate the transaction of the business of the House in the earlier part of the day when it was insisted that the discussion shall be strictly confined to the measures legitimately before that body.

Mr Clemens who was wounded in the duel with Mr Wise is still unable to walk or leave his room. His strength has been so reduced by suffering and confinement that in all probability he will not resume his seat in Congress during the present session. He came to Washington to try the effect of change of association.

The crew of the Oxnard were saved by the ship Chariot of Fame, Capt Knowles, now in the Roads.

From New Mexico.

ST. LOUIS, 17th.

The New Mexican mail of the 27th reached Independence yesterday. It was packed on mules the most of the way in consequence of bad roads.

The New Mexican Legislature elected Augustus Demerell Public Printer, vice S M Mecat.

Nothing had been heard of the missing Neosho mail party.

Gov Rencher, in a special message, says that the armistice with the Navajos amounts to nothing, as it does not provide for the surrender of the murderer of Major Brooks' servant, nor payment for him.

The Superintendent of Indian affairs and the Commander of the military department say they will consent to no peace upon the terms of the armistice. They will require the return of the public and private property taken during the war, and the establishment of a line east of which the Indians shall neither plant or graze stock.

A dispatch from Independence to the Republican says that just as the New Mexican mail was leaving Santa Fe an express arrived announcing the safe arrival of the missing Neosho mail party at Albuquerque.

BOSTON, 17th.

A passenger in the schooner North Wind furnishes interesting details of the new movement in Hayti. For some time at Gonaives it was supposed, and known by some, that a political outing was intended. On the PM of Dec 22d, four armed individuals landed on the beach, and entering Gonaives, galloped at once to La Palance, the residence of the Governor, where Jeffard demanded an entrance of the sentinel, and that the cry of Vive la Republique should be raised, which demands the sentinel refused. Jeffard and companions then frightened the sentinel of the jail into a liberation of about forty political prisoners, who joined Jeffard, the whole party returning to the Governor's residence, summoned him to surrender to the forces of Liberty and the Republic. He acceded to their demands and resigned. The strong part of the town was now in the hands of Jeffard, who was joined by all the military and town people. They then marched to a palace belonging to Soulouque, where a deputation met and proclaimed the Republic of Hayti, with Jeffard as provisional head.

On Thursday, 23d Dec, the Republic was publicly proclaimed in the Grand Square, and Jeffard named provisional President, which office he accepted. Gov Bartholamy gave in his submission, and after a grand solemnization by the church, the new Constitution was signed by the late authorities and principal citizens. The forces of Jeffard were augmented by the citizens of Gonaives, and the fortified town of St Marcs was taken possession of without opposition, where they were to remain and recruit until strong enough to meet the forces of Soulouque in the field, or assail him at Port au Prince. The insurrection was spreading North and South. Various decrees have been issued, one of which restores and pays in force the Constitution of 1846, and provides for the calling of a Legislature by President Jeffard's decree, and have also been promulgated releasing all political prisoners, increasing rations of soldiers, ordering demolition of dungeons of fort of Gonaives, &c. Another decree, hauled Republic of Hayti, deprives Soulouque of all power in the name of the nation, characterizing his administration as nothing but series of robberies, etc.

NEW YORK, 17th.

The Washington correspondent of the Evening Post says a proposition is on foot to amend the bill entitled a codification of the revenue laws, with a clause repealing the fishing bounties. It is understood that Speaker Orr will admit the motion.

PORTSMOUTH, 17th.

The Portsmouth Literary Hall was burned Sunday morning, causing a loss of $4000.—The Ocean House was damaged to the amount of $1500.

HAMPTON ROADS, 17th.

Arrived ships Chariot of Fame, Joe Parrott, and Macaulay, from the Chinchie Island.

Ship Onward of Boston, from Cardiff bound to San Francisco, coal laden, sprung sleak in a gale off Cape Horn, and was abandoned—The crew were saved and have arrived here.

Opinion of the prominent Druggists of Concord.

We, the undersigned, druggists of this city, have been acquainted with, and sold for a year or two past, an article of Family Medicine known as Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and we would assure the public that in every instance, so far as we know, it has given the best satisfaction to the purchaser. We can recommend it to the public as an article

OF GREAT MERIT AND VIRTUE

Indeed, we never knew an article of Medicine become so deservedly popular in so short a time, when it proved by the first of its extensive sale, and constantly increasing demand.

Signed—J D Park, Chas Collins, S H Parsin, J B Doughty, Ami Zeiler, A D Sceell, W J M Gordon, E B Hosman, G H Bates, Wade Eckstein & Co, J. E. Eastman.

Dear Sirs—I became your agent without feeling any interest in the medicine, but I soon became very much interested upon seeing the happy effect it had upon many persons. The increased sales in this State are truly astonishing. I might have collected any number of certificates of its great power in relieving pain, if I had attended to it at the time the cures came under my observation. So, least I can say for the Pain Killer is, that it fully answers the purpose for which it is recommended.

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING,

AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry and you will seldom need a Physician.

Is it not a truth that when the feet are often wet, as is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It is a truth that when leathers often are wet dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and cracks, but when the water proof thus is remedied by the application of this preservative, it remains soft, and entirely impervious to water.

After being engaged for 25 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches, and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I was led to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water proof, but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather. At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the astringent properties with which leather is tanned. It will not only make leather water proof, but at the same time soften the leather, and it will Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years and a large part of that time have worked in a wet Tannery with my boots constantly in water, and have no had my feet wet during that time I can therefore in all confidence recommend it to the public as the best article in the market

THE LUXURY AND PROFIT OF HONEY MAKING.

☞ Torrey's Bee Hive.

THE subscriber having purchased the right of making and selling Dorus' Patent Bee Hive for the Counties of Penobscot, Lincoln and Sagadahoc, which has been received with so much favor, and taken the first premiums wherever exhibited, has introduced an improvement into the Bee Hive and is now prepared to make the same in connection with the Davis Platform, and to sell rights in towns and individuals

This Bee Hive, thus improved, is admitted by persons acquainted with the honey-making business to be superior to every thing yet invented for the purpose. It covers all the requisitions for the profitable manipulation of the apiary, by providing for ventilation at all seasons of the year—room for the exercise and feed of the bees—conveniences for the removal of excrement, for the proper separation of the swarms, and generally for the health and comfort of the workers

The boxes used in this Hive for storing honey, are the best adapted in the market, for the market, holding from three to six pounds each.

The subscriber wishes to purchase one hundred swarms of bees in exchange for bee hives and individual rights.

☞ For sale, fifty swarms of Bees, with the new hives

Capital $500,000.

A. NICHOLAS, President. Office, 70 Wall st.

A Perfect Security against all manner of Fraud or Counterfeiting on Paper—To Prevent Photographic and Anastatic Counterfeits, Erasures, Transfers or Alterations.

HAVING purchased the Patent for the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the Chemical Paper in America, invented and patented in England by HENRY OTTER, a celebrated Chemist and officer in the British army, it is hardly necessary to say that the Paper is recommended by Mr Kent, Assayer of the U S. Mint, Mr. Lyman of the New York Clearing House, and Meade Brothers, extensive and skillful photographers, 233 Broadway, N. Y. The latter say that no mistake can be made on a check or bank note printed on the Safety Paper. Below is our list of prices,

Bank Checks—$5 cts. per lb.
Bank Bills—$15 for 1000 sheets.
Bills of Exchange—$25 for 1000 sheets.
Promissory Notes—40 cts. per lb
Sight and Time Drafts—$25 for 1000 sheets
Insurance Policies—40 cts. per lb.
Railroad Stocks and Bonds—40 cts. per lb
Bank and State Stocks—40 cts. per lb.
Bonds and Mortgages—40 cts. per lb.
Wills and Deeds—40 cts per lb.

For wrapping Silks and other Rich articles it is excellent, as it prevents moths 40 cts a lb

For Indentures and Agreements, 40 cts a lb

All State and County Records should always be printed or written on this paper, as the chemicals inserted in the pulp not only prevents erasure or transfer, but makes it lasting as time.

For Southern climates it is excellent, and much superior to any other, as the moistness of the climate does not destroy it,—the properties inserted in the pulp being a preventive In all the Southern States, Cuba, the West Indies, and the Central American States, no public records can be kept over 20 years, written on the ordinary paper, while the oils and other chemicals inserted in this paper makes it indestructible by the ravages of time It is also proof against moths, rats and other vermin, which feast on and destroy all other paper now in use.

The Company have now in operation Mills in Morris County, N J., of about 300 horse power, and are able to fill all orders for Paper at the shortest notice

All orders for the Paper must be addressed to A NICHOLAS, President of the Company, No. 70 Wall street, New York

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837,)
76 State St., opposite Kilby St.,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made in the American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or nulity of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of Inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors

The Boston Journal

FOR 1859

"The Favorite Paper of New England,"

Published Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

Payment invariable in advance

In announcing the terms for 1859, the proprietor deems it unnecessary to describe its peculiar character as a newspaper, or to make any promises for the future He deems it sufficient to say that has been in the past its will be the almost unanimous choice in nearly all localities throughout New England. Ahead of the New England press in point of literary merit, and in every other quality which go to make up a first class newspaper, there is no paper published in New England, that has attained by pursuing a straightforward course in all respects, and by spending labor no money to give the public the fullest reports of all matters of interest at the earliest moment It has also attained, and not upon the representations or assurances in regard to its merits, and not upon the representations or assurances in regard to its circulation, but upon the positive evidence and patronage of the people. The result has been that the Boston Journal has more than three times as large an actual circulation in New England as any other paper, and is steadily increasing. It has also attained the employment of reporters and correspondents in all the departments of business, and by the most liberal and unlimited outlay for procuring of important news, and by the most liberal offers to make THE JOURNAL worthy the name of "The favorite paper of New England." And with this aim it asks the attention of every one who wishes to have at their fireside, or who desires to advertise in, a first class paper, or who desires to have at their counting room, or on their dealers throughout New England, the following statement of the circulation of the several editions of THE JOURNAL.

BOSTON DAILY JOURNAL

Morning and Evening

Contains the latest news received by mail and telegraph up to the hour of going to press. It is printed on a fine white paper, and is issued Twice a Day, at the rate of FIFTEEN CENTS per week, which enables the reader to have the paper left at his residence or place of business at an hour which enables him to read the news of the day, and continue the same up to the hour of going to press. It is published at a very low rate

Six Dollars a year. Single copies of the paper two cents.

SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL

Tuesdays and Fridays Morning,

Contains all the news matter published in the Daily Journal of the previous issue, and the arrangements for the delivery of the paper are such that it reaches the subscribers in season for breakfast. Published by Journal Co.
